INTRODUCTION
AND GENERAL INDEX

R. L. POLK & CO., publishers of more than 1,000 city, county, state and national Directories, present to subscribers and the general public, this, the 1961 edition of the Boston City Directory in two volumes. The Directory also includes Allston, Brighton, Charlestown, Dorchester, East Boston, Hyde Park, Jamaica Plain, Mattapan, Readville, Roslindale, Roxbury, South Boston and West Roxbury.

Confidence in the continued growth of Boston's industry, population and wealth, and in the advancement of its civic and social activities, will be maintained as sections of this Directory are consulted, for the Directory is a mirror truly reflecting Boston to the world.

The enviable position occupied by R. L. POLK & CO.'S Directories in the estimation of the public throughout the country, has been established by rendering the best in Directory service. With an unrivaled organization, and having had the courteous and hearty cooperation of the business and professional men and residents, the publishers feel that the result of their labors will meet with the approval of every user, and that the Boston Directory will fulfill its mission as a source of authentic information pertaining to the city and vicinity.

Four Major Departments

The four major departments are arranged in the following order:—

I. THE YELLOW PAGES, in Volume 1, is the first major department, and contains the advertisements of leading financial, manufacturing, business and professional interests of Boston and vicinity. The advertisements are indexed under headings descriptive of the business represented. This is reference advertising at its best, and merits a survey by all buyers eager to familiarize themselves with sources of supply. In a great commercial and industrial center like Boston, the necessity of having this kind of information immediately available, is obvious. General appreciation of this fact is evidenced by the many reference users of this City Directory service.

II. THE ALPHABETICAL LIST OF NAMES of residents and business and professional concerns, in two volumes (Volume 1, A-K; Volume 2, L-Z), is the second major department, printed on white paper. This is the only record in existence that aims to show the name, marital status, occupation and address of each adult resident of Boston and vicinity, and the name, official personnel, nature and address of each firm and corporation.

III. THE DIRECTORY OF HOUSEHOLDERS, INCLUDING STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE, in two volumes (Volume 1, A-K; Volume 2, L-Z), is the third major department, printed on green paper. In this section the numbered streets are arranged in numerical order, followed by the named streets in alphabetical order; the numbers of the residences and business concerns are arranged in numerical order under the name of each street, and the names of the householders and concerns are placed opposite the numbers. The names of the intersecting streets appear at their respective crossing points on each street. Special features of this section are the designation of tenant-owned homes and the designation of homes and places of business having telephones.

IV. THE CLASSIFIED BUSINESS DIRECTORY, in Volume 2, is the fourth major department, printed on yellow paper. This department lists the names of all business and professional concerns in alphabetical order under appropriate headings. This feature constitutes an invaluable and indispensable catalog of the numerous interests of the community. The Directory is the common intermediary between buyer and seller. As such it plays an important part in the daily activities of the commercial and professional world. More buyers and sellers meet through the Classified Business Directory than through any other medium.

Community Publicity

The Directory reflects the achievements and ambitions of the community, depicting in unbiased terms what it has to offer as a place of residence, as a business location, as a port, as a manufacturing site and as an educational center. To broadcast this information, the publishers have placed copies of this issue of the Directory in Directory Libraries, where they are readily available for free public reference, and serve as perpetual and reliable advertisements of Boston and vicinity.

The Boston Directory Library

Through the courtesy of the publishers of the Boston City Directory, a Directory Library is maintained in their offices at 600 Washington St., for free reference by the general public. This is one of more than 1,000 Directory Libraries installed and maintained in cities and towns throughout the U. S. and Canada by members of the Association of North American Directory Publishers, under whose supervision the system is operated.

The publishers appreciatively acknowledge the recognition by those progressive business and professional men who have demonstrated their confidence in the City Directory as an advertising medium, with assurance that it will bring a commensurate return.

BOSTON . . . Historical

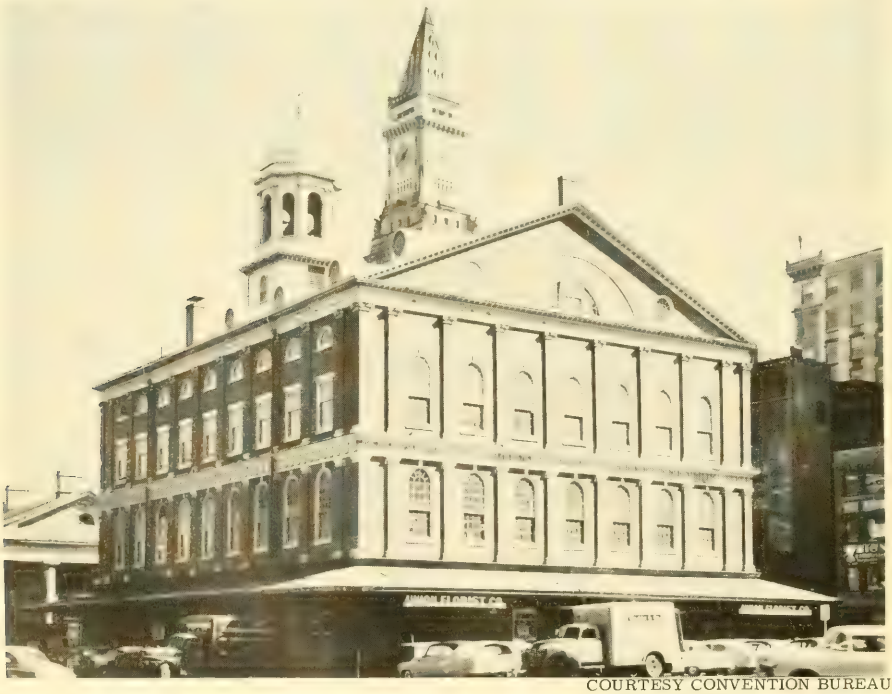
STATE HOUSE, BEACON STREET.

Boston, the oldest large city in the United States, was founded in 1630 by a chartered company of English colonists under the governorship of John Winthrop. Named Shawmut by its Indian inhabitants and Trimontaine by the early colonists, it received its present name on Sept. 17, 1630, after the town in Lincolnshire, England, from which many of the company had come. Two years later it was established as the capital of the Massachusetts Bay Colony and is today the capital of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Although religious freedom was one of the principles on which the early English colonies were founded, the "Puritan" population of Boston soon became intolerant of divergent religious views. Some of the offenders were exiled, Anne Hutchinson among them, and others, like Roger Williams, who founded Rhode Island, emigrated voluntarily. Between 1648 and 1688 four women were executed as witches, and four Quakers, who returned in defiance of their exile, were hanged.

For many years Boston was the largest town in the colonies and it has always occupied a position of leadership. It was the scene of the first American printing office, and the first regular newspaper, the BOSTON NEWS LETTER, was published in Boston in 1704. America's first public school, which is still in existence, the Public Latin School, was started in 1635. Harvard College, located across the Charles River in Cambridge, the country's oldest institution of higher learning, was founded in the following year.

Boston, as the natural center of the colonies that later came to be known as New England, was continuously in the forefront in the long dispute with the mother country that culminated in the American Revolution. Because of the lack of resources in New England—the soil and the climate were not suitable for the raising of the colonial staples, tobacco or cotton or sugar—this section of the New World soon became England's step-child and came to learn that it had to fend for itself. The various trade and tax laws, imposed by Britain, worked a particular hardship on New England's seaport towns. Therefore, these could subsist only through their shipping among the other colonies and between the Old and New Worlds. As a result, Boston earned the name of hotbed of the Revolution, with the Stamp Act and Revenue Act riots, the Boston Massacre, the Boston Tea Party and the Boston Port Bill, outward evidences of the city's right to the title. America still respects the names of the many rugged patriots who refused to accept England's punitive measures in silence—such men as Samuel Adams, John Hancock, Paul Revere, William Dawes and James Otis, among a long list.



New England capitalized on the opportunities offered by the industrial revolution around 1800. Textile mills sprang into being in towns all over New England where water power was available, and not long after, the shoe industry followed suit. Boston became the natural center for these industries, both as a market for their finished products and as the port of entry for their raw materials cotton, wool, silk and leather.

Boston—appropriately called "The Birthplace of the American Nation"—possesses a wealth of historic places and traditions which are the heritage of all America.

Masonic Temple, Corner of Boylston and Tremont Streets

This Temple was erected in 1898-9 on the site of the well-known Winthrop House, which had been destroyed by fire. The Grand Lodge of Masons in Massachusetts is the oldest Grand Lodge in the Western Hemisphere, deriving its authority from the Grand Lodge of England on July 30, 1733.

FANEUIL HALL

SOMETIMES CALLED THE "CRADLE OF AMERICAN LIBERTY" IS FANEUIL HALL IN BOSTON, WHERE AMERICAN PATRIOTS MADE FIERY SPEECHES AND ORGANIZED COMMITTEES AGAINST THE BRITISH WHICH LED TO THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR. THE SECOND FLOOR CONTAINS THE ORIGINAL HALL PRESERVED IN EXCELLENT CONDITION, AND ON THE GROUND FLOOR VISITORS STILL FIND THE MARKET STALLS AS THEY WERE NEARLY 200 YEARS AGO.

A partial list of historic places to see in and around Boston includes: Samuel Adams House, "Ye Old Blake House," Boston Common—the site of the "Boston Tea Party," Bunker Hill Monument, U. S. Frigate "Constitution," Copp's Hill Burying Ground, Faneuil Hall, First Church in Boston, Franklin's Birthplace, Granary Burying Ground, King's Chapel, Liberty Tree, Old North Church (Christ Church), Old State House, Wendell Phillips House, First Post Office in American Colonies, Province House, Paul Revere House, Old South Meeting House, Old West Church, Spring Lane, the Adams Houses, Arnold's Tavern, Lowell's House, Longfellow's Home, Old Powder House, Plymouth, Minute Man Statue, Revolutionary Monument, Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, and Longfellow's Wayside Inn.

THE ISABELLA STEWART GARDNER MUSEUM IN THE FENWAY

All over the world there are people who think of the Gardner Museum when Boston is mentioned. The word museum is perhaps somewhat misleading, because this more nearly resembles a great residence, a noble house, built in the style of a XVc Venetian palace. Standing four stories high, it surrounds a large court, glassed-in at the top, filled always with the brilliant color and the mingled perfumes of a garden in flower. Looking down on the court are open window balconies from the rooms where paintings by the great masters of the European renaissance are parts of a choice and famous collection.

When Mrs John Lowell Gardner built her palace sixty years ago she had in view a new kind of museum, one that would escape from the strictly historical or geographic arrangement that was common, a museum in which works of art could be really appreciated and enjoyed in a "natural" setting, as in a private house. Hence her choice of this type building, and hence also her highly personal arrangement of her art treasures. Since her death in 1924 there has been no change. Her house continues to delight and enchant, and it continues to attract art connoisseurs from all over the world. Last year visitors from abroad numbered nearly 6,000, while total attendance approached 117,000.

Walking through the rooms of this museum one is able to take in the contents with a fresh and open mind, mainly because of the way things are set and placed about. They seem casually placed. They give an impression of domestic ease, which is furthered by the plants and flowers in the court. On every open day there is music in the Tapestry Room, heard faintly throughout the building because all windows give on the central court. When the weather is pleasant, gardens outside invite quiet strolling, and when the days are cool, rooms inside carry the pleasant smell of wood smoke from the fireplaces. Obviously, this is a grand house; but it still has the flavor of home, of a place where people have lived and where the things surrounding them have added to the fulness of their lives.

Among these things are paintings by a glittering array of masters, ranging in time onward from Giotto (1266-1337) to the contemporaries of Mrs Gardner. Among the artists are such early masters, also, as Simone Martini, Lippo Memmi, Fra Angelico, Uccello, Mantegna, Bermejo, Botticelli, Filippino Lippi, Durer, Cranach, Giorgione, Titian, Mabuse, Raphael, Holbein, Tintoretto, and Veronese—a truly impressive roster. Among the XVIIc painters are Pourbus, Rubens, Zurbaran, Van Dyck, Rembrandt, Ter Borch and Vermeer. Some later painters in the collection are Boucher, Tiepolo, Guardi, Turner, Corot, Manet, Degas, Whistler, Sargent, Macknight, and Matisse. And there are ancient Chinese, Greek and Roman sculpture, carvings and other art works from the romanesque and gothic periods of many countries, and furniture, textiles, silver, and incunabula and other early books. The catalogued collection alone consists of approximately 290 paintings, 280 pieces of sculpture, 60 drawings and prints, 460 pieces of furniture, 250 textile, 240 objects of ceramic and glass, and 350 objects of sundry other kinds, without an enumeration of manuscripts and rare books or of architectural elements set into the building.

But it is the total impression—the superb collection itself, the integrated arrangement, the music and the flowers—which makes the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum the unique experience it is, and which, in increasing numbers, draws people again and again from all over the world.

BOSTON . . . A Cultural Center

Side by side with the forward march of commerce and industry in the Boston area has developed a rich variety of cultural pursuits, in many of which this community holds first rank.

In music, drama and the fine arts, in education, religion, literature, science and statesmanship, Boston has contributed much to the development of America's unique civilization.

The Boston Museum of Fine Arts has had for 70 years one of the nation's most comprehensive collections of art works, both ancient and modern. It possesses, for example, the finest collection of Oriental art outside of the Orient; the foremost Indian collection outside of India; and its collection of Egyptian pieces surpasses in quality any to be found outside of Cairo itself. Boston's Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, modelled after a Venetian palace, contains some outstanding sculpture and Medieval stained glass, as well as superb painting ranging from the Italian Renaissance masters to the French Impressionists. Several of the museums at Harvard hold highest rank, such as the Fogg Art Museum and the Agassiz Museum, which houses probably the foremost collection of glass flowers in the world.

In both traditional and modern art expression, Boston holds a leading place. Many art clubs flourish in this area. Art magazines commonly list a larger number of exhibitions of paintings in Boston, virtually all without admission charge, than any city outside of New York. Boston's year-around art schools and the summer art colonies along the North Shore, Cape Cod and at many inland and mountain points are famous throughout the world.

The Boston Symphony Orchestra, reputed to be the finest musical organization of its kind in the world, is a successor to America's first philharmonic orchestra, which was founded in Boston in 1810. The Boston symphony's offspring, the famous Boston Pops Concerts, and the more-recently established Esplanade Summer Concerts, rank with the finest musical presentations. The Handel and Haydn Society of Boston is one of the leading singing groups and the nation's oldest oratorio association.

No community has provided so rich and fertile an environment for spiritual growth. Here the Christian Science Church was born, the headquarters of the Unitarian and Universalist churches and of the World Christian Endeavor were established, the First American Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations were founded, and the widespread missionary activities of the Congregational Church were organized. Boston has given to the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States its presiding bishop; and the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Boston is the second largest in the country.

Boston always has been one of the leading supporters of the drama. Today this city has more first-class theatres and presents more first performances of important theatrical offerings than any other city outside of New York. The Little Theatre movement and summer theatrical presentations throughout the Massachusetts countryside are not excelled anywhere.

In literature, the contribution of Massachusetts authors to the development of American culture are known to every reader.

One of the foremost schools of architecture in the country, that of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and others in and around Boston are notable examples of architectural beauty. Boston also is famed among American cities for the exceptional number and character of its monuments and sculptures.

Truly, this is a community richly endowed with opportunities for cultural expression and activity.

EDUCATION

Metropolitan Boston, where American education began, is today one of the world's foremost cultural and educational centers.

This section is the home of the oldest American university. Here, too, started the American public school system, and here was adopted the first legislation covering public education.

Public instruction in America began in Boston in 1635, 15 years after the advent of the Pilgrims. In that year the Boston Latin School, the first free public school, came into existence. This school antedates the foundation of Harvard, oldest American university, by one year. In 1644 the first school built and wholly supported by public taxation was established in Dedham, a suburb of Boston.

In 1642 the first school law was adopted, providing for education in the homes of Boston; and in 1647 was enacted the first general school law, the "mother of all school laws," and the foundation of many present school systems. Similarly, the first training school for teachers was established here.

It is a far step from these humble beginnings of organized educational effort to the vast system of American education in operation now. Today there are more than 700,000 students in the public schools of Massachusetts alone. In addition, 175,000 pupils are enrolled in private and parochial schools of pre-college grade, and in this respect, too, Massachusetts is one of the leaders.

Yet, despite this enormous growth, Boston and Massachusetts have maintained the spirit of the pioneer in education, and today with no superiors in educational standing, are as alert to opportunities for sound educational progress as they were at the beginning.

Every modern facility is provided for the proper training of youth, and educational methods are of a high standard of excellence. In keeping with the needs of a great industrial community, the public school systems of the metropolitan district are equipped for training in vocational, trade, technical, commercial and mechanical activities; and fullest opportunities are available as well for development in cultural pursuits.

But it is not alone in free public instruction that this section excels. Here also are some of the world's foremost institutions of higher learning, including many of America's leading professional, technical, business, music and art schools.

Massachusetts has 93 institutions authorized to confer degrees, a larger number than any other state. More than half of these are in Metropolitan Boston. Harvard, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Tufts, Boston University, Brandeis University, Boston College, Jackson, Radcliffe, Wellesley, Northeastern, Simmons, Emmanuel, Regis, Emerson, Calvin Coolidge and Suffolk are among the educational institutions located in Metropolitan Boston. In addition, there are literally hundreds of specialized schools such as the New England Conservatory of Music, Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Massachusetts School of Art, School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Forsythe Dental Clinic, Babson Institute, Massachusetts College of Pharmacy, and a long list of other professional and training schools, making the city a notable leader in education.

Of outstanding interest is the world-famous Boston Public Library, the oldest free public library in the United States. With 2,000,000 books and a 5,000,000 annual circulation, 33 branch libraries plus a bookmobile and a special addition at the Boston City Hospital, the library holds an unsurpassed position culturally. The main building, opened in 1898, was designed by McKim, Mead & White and is an excellent example of Italian Renaissance architecture. In October, 1953, the library celebrated its centennial.

Boston has played a leading role in the nation's cultural growth. Referred to in another era as "the Athens of America," it certainly held undisputed claim to this title for many years. Here—and in neighboring Cambridge and Concord— lived and worked a colony of writers which gave to American letters a distinctive place in literature. Names like Emerson, Holmes, Longfellow, the Alcotts, Thoreau, Hawthorne, Aldrich, Lowell, Howells, James, Parkman and an imposing roster of others form a rich and substantial background for all American writing that has come after them.

BOSTON . . . Transportation

Through the veins of Boston's transportation system flows a steady stream of traffic to meet the great and diversified requirements of New England and the important centers of the world.

Boston has every modern facility for the expeditious handling of transportation by air, land and sea. It has one of the great domestic and international airports in the United States, its seaport is equal, or superior, to any port on the Eastern Seaboard and its railroad service has been rated among the country's best. Three large railway systems, 108 foreign steamship services, 2 intercoastal steamship lines, 10 domestic air lines, 6 trans-Atlantic air lines and hundreds of highway transportation operators constitute the important and flexible transportation system of the Boston region.

AIRPORT

Boston's Logan International Airport, located as it is within 15 minutes' distance from the center of the business district, is one of the great skyports of the world. This great asset of accessibility and its unique opportunity for expansion to meet any future needs make Boston's airport a leader in the nation.

In operation are four paved runways, the longest over 10,000 feet. These runways are so designed that each may be extended later if it proves necessary. Furthermore, each runway can be duplicated later by a parallel runway 1,500 feet removed. Sponsored originally in 1922 by the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce, the airport has been built on filled land on the edge of Boston Harbor. It is operated by the Massachusetts Port Authority, together with an alternate airport at Bedford.

The airport covers an area of more than 2,000 acres. The long paved runways are capable of handling the large trans-Atlantic planes arriving and departing at Boston. Two of Boston's famous historic landmarks —Governors Island and Apple Island—have been leveled in this enlargement operation, thus bowing to civic progress. Ten scheduled air lines—American, Eastern, Flying Tiger, National, Northeast, Trans-Canada, Trans-World, United, Allegheny and Mohawk—are currently making well over 1,000 outbound domestic flights daily. Five trans-Atlantic air lines—Irish Airlines, British Overseas, Pan-American, Trans-World Airways, and Italian Airlines—provide more than 100 trans-Atlantic outbound flights at Logan each week. The Boston-

New York route has been termed the heaviest traveled air route in the United States. In addition to the flights to Europe, Asia, Africa and South America, there is service to virtually all of the major cities in the United States and some Canadian cities. Boston's aviation network provides service, through convenient connections, to all of the major markets in the world.

SEAPORT

Boston, with the finest natural harbor on the Atlantic Coast, equipped with modern piers, docks and warehouses, ranks high among the major ports of the world. It is practically land-locked and from the open sea to the inner harbor the distance is only eight miles. As a shipping point to commercial centers, Boston has a marked advantage over other American seaports. It lies 200 miles nearer Europe than New York, and 1,000 miles nearer Panama and the west coast of South America than San Francisco, and is nearer Rio de Janeiro and Buenos Aires than any other North Atlantic port. As compared with any other major Atlantic seaport, from 150 to 300 miles is saved by sailing from Boston to the ports of the United Kingdom, Continental Europe and the Near East. Passengers to or from Europe may save a day or more by embarking or debarking at Boston.

The Port of Boston has several excellent waterfront terminal facilities. In South Boston there is Castle Island Terminal, with 4,200 feet of berthing space, and only one hour steaming time from the open sea; the huge Boston Army Base with its fully-enclosed pier shed nearly one mile long; Commonwealth Pier, over 35 years old and still described as the best passenger pier on the Atlantic Coast. Charlestown has the brand-new Mystic Pier No. 1, with 246,000 square feet of shed space and berthing space for three large vessels; the Boston & Maine piers Nos. 48, 49 and 50, which yearly handle thousands of tons of wood pulp and general cargo; and the new Hoosac Pier and grain elevator, with, among other features, the ability to load 30,000 bushels of grain per hour into waiting vessels. In East Boston the Boston & Albany Railroad operates two efficient finger-type piers; and the Port of Boston Commission has completed a modern terminal facility, such as was constructed at Mystic Pier No. 1, in Charlestown. A modernized grain elevator capable of delivering 30,000 bushels per hour is in service.

The facilities of the Port of Boston also are operated by the Massachusetts Port Authority, along with the Mystic River Bridge.

RAILROADS

Boston's railroad facilities, provided by the New York, New Haven & Hartford, the Boston & Albany and the Boston & Maine railroads, include numerous large piers on the waterfront, many freight houses strategically located with sidetrack facilities to handle thousands of cars at one time, team tracks for bulk freight deliveries permitting the placement of 3,000 cars at a time for loading and unloading, and large storage yards with capacity up to 13,000 cars to meet the demands of modern commerce and industry. Delivery yards are equipped with overhead electric cranes and special platforms to facilitate the loading and unloading of large units, such as automobiles, trucks, machinery and other heavy freight.

Boston has many electric railways and buses. The Metropolitan Transit Authority and the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co. connect virtually every part of Metropolitan Boston. Boston's underground system, comprising about 12 miles of subway, was the first municipal subway to be built in the United States, and the second in the world.

Located as Boston is, in the extreme northeast section of the country, with not an overabundance of raw materials, the city and New England lean heavily upon their efficient railroad, seaport, highway and air services for the continuous import of raw materials and the export of finished products to keep the supply lines of this important area open for world commerce.

Besides its use to the storekeeper, it is a convenience the customer expects.

To Protect You

The Better Business Bureau protects the public FIRST—and we do it without charging a penny. Business institutions become members of the Bureau and make this service possible because they know that the work we do increases confidence in the advertising and business of reputable concerns in Greater Boston.

It is our job to assist legitimate advertisers to keep advertising accurate and truthful. Inaccurate or misleading advertising, even when unintentional, injures public GOOD WILL.

We gather information about questionable investment propositions, so that you can come to an impartial agency and get accurate information to protect yourself, without charge. We advocate "Before You Invest—Investigate." We have nothing to sell and therefore do not recommend or deprecate any particular financial venture. We give the facts, but do not state opinions.

We investigate suit clubs, free lot schemes, picture enlarging schemes, fraudulent peddlers, fake auction sales, crooked financial projects, "going out of business" sales that are not bona fide, exaggerated value claims, etc.

All this is done to protect the public and legitimate business.

Help us to protect the public and to keep Boston a good place in which to trade.

There is no Charge to the Public for Bureau Services

Fake directory schemes are varied and numerous. There are also many business directories, which, while not legally fraudulent, are so incomplete in their listings or distribution as to be of little value. Honest and well-managed business directories are good advertising media and appropriations for this form of advertising should not be diverted to questionable schemes.

Better Business Bureau

52 Chauncy Street

And Your Savings

Over One Thousand Greater Boston Business Concerns maintain the Boston Bureau so that you may have at your disposal an impartial organization to which to go for information about any questionable financial or merchandise offer.

To strengthen public confidence in legitimate business, the Bureau also welcomes justified complaints regarding questionable or fraudulent advertising or financial promotions.

Practically every field of business is represented in the Bureau membership.

The Bureau is an independent, non-stock, non-profit membership corporation organized under the laws of Massachusetts.

Its objects are to—Protect the Public from fraud and deceit.

Increase public confidence in advertising and selling.

Protect legitimate business from unfair competition.

Move constructively against nefarious practices in business.

Fake directory schemes are varied and numerous. There are also many business directories, which, while not legally fraudulent, are so incomplete in their listings or distribution as to be of little value. Honest and well-managed business directories are good advertising media and appropriations for this form of advertising should not be diverted to questionable schemes.

Do your employers furnish you with the latest edition of the City Directory

You need it at your elbow at all times, to protect your company from forgers and bad-check artists. A few questions, checked against City Directory information, will trip them at once. Intelligent use of the City Directory for this purpose has saved thousands of dollars and helped make some cities "too sharp" for bad-check "operators."

A STATEMENT OF
ADVERTISING PRINCIPLES

1. Good Advertising —aims to inform the consumer and help him to buy more intelligently.

2. Good Advertising —tells the truth, avoiding misstatement of facts as well as possible deception through implication or omission. It makes no claims which cannot be met in full and without further qualification. It uses only testimonials of competent witnesses.

3. Good Advertising — conforms to the generally accepted standards of good taste. It seeks public acceptance on the basis of the merits of the product or service advertised rather than by the disparagement of competing goods. It tries to avoid practices that are offensive or annoying.

4. Good Advertising — recognizes both its economic responsibility to help reduce distribution costs and its social responsibility in serving the public interest.

Please! Do Not Lend Your CITY DIRECTORY

IT COSTS YOU MONEY—Every Time it Is Loaned

The practice of lending your City Directory, in a great measure, is responsible for the increasing cost of Directory Service.

The reason is:—

There is a definite cost involved in the making of the DIRECTORY of Your City.

THIS COST MUST BE ABSORBED BY THE SUBSCRIBERS—BE THEY ONE—OR BE THEY 1000.

If there were but ONE SUBSCRIBER to the CITY DIRECTORY—THE ONE SUBSCRIBER would of necessity have to absorb THE WHOLE COST.

If there were 100 SUBSCRIBERS—each one would have to absorb 1/100th PART OF THE WHOLE COST.

If there were 1000 SUBSCRIBERS—each one would have to absorb 1/1000th PART OF THE WHOLE COST.

From which it is obvious that the GREATER the number of subscribers —the LESSER the cost to each.

And

It is also obvious that the LESSER the number of subscribers—the GREATER the cost to each.

Every time you loan your City Directory the LESS NECESSITY THERE IS FOR THE BORROWER TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE SERVICE.

MORE BORROWERS result in FEWER SUBSCRIBERS which means INCREASED COST.

Paige People and You

Our Company Seal carries the words "dependable insurance." The more than 300 people who are John C. Paige & Company strive constantly to live up to all that those words imply.

The insurance knowledge, experience and ability of these professional people work for clients large and small . . . corporate and personal . . . from coast to coast. Some of the qualifications of a truly professional insurance brokerage organization are obvious—some are subtle, and hard to find. We're encouraged by the fact that many thousands of clients believe they have found both the obvious and subtle qualifications, in high degree, at John C. Paige & Company.

If you are one of these clients, we treasure your confidence and extend our thanks. If you are not, we hope you'll want to know us better. Cordially, we invite your inquiries.

How to Obtain the Greatest Benefit from Your City Directory

"The More You Use Your Directory, the Less It Becomes in Cost— Always Consult Your Directory First"

Principal Uses of a City Directory

SALES PROMOTION:

a. Sales Analysis—

Comparing present amount of business obtained in a given area with possible maximum business in that area. The Householders' Directory shows the classes of business located on a street, in office buildings, in sections of the city, etc. In checking up salesmen's calls on business in an assigned territory the directory presents a picture of how many places have not been reported upon, and shows a ready list of prospects for your goods or service.

b. Leads—

Determining proper official to approach for sales interview. The alphabetical listing for each business and professional concern, shows the names of the owners, partners or officers.

c. Selected districts—

Determining parts of city best suited for increasing business. The Householders' Street Directory shows the exact type of business or residences along each street of the city—and shows if the occupant of the home is the owner.

d. Building mailing lists and direct mail campaigns—

1. List of local people (Neighborhood List) within a given radius of Business location. On a city map, draw a circle to include the territory you wish to cover in your neighborhood list. From the map you can obtain the name of each street with intersections in the circle you have drawn. In the Householders' Street Directory you will find the correct name of the occupant at each house, or building on these streets. This will give you a 100% list of the territory desired.
2. Lists of business houses and the professions—The business directory at the end of the book classifies every business and profession according to the nature of the business. Complete lists such as doctors, lawyers, printers, garages, auto dealers, furniture stores, contractors, etc., can be found in this classified directory section.
3. Vocational Lists—Such as clerks, stenographers, telephone operators, carpenters, salesmanagers, purchasing agents, laborers, etc. The alphabetical directory shows the occupation of every individual in the city. Run over the alphabetical pages—check marking the persons whose occupation is the one wanted for your list. This will give you a complete and accurate list for the entire city.

CREDIT:

a. Verifying customer's statements and information.

b. Information about customer.

Correct name, address, where employed and wife's name is given in the alphabetical directory for every individual. Whether he rents or owns home is usually shown in the Householders' Directory.

c. Determining character and stability of applicant for credit.

This directory gives his present occupation and residence. By referring to each yearly edition of the directory for the past few years, it is quickly determined whether the applicant holds the same job and residence, or flits from one job to another and one residence to another. After the new directory is delivered to you, keep the old one on file. Never destroy it. You'll find old ones invaluable in checking your past records.

DELIVERY AND SHIPPING:

a. Routing—laying out route for delivery.

Use description of streets in the Householders' Street Directory, with an indexed map of the city for locating and laying out delivery route.

b. Obtaining correct addresses.

Where numbers on shipping instructions are not plain, or only street is given, the correct number can be found in the alphabetical or Householders' Street Directory.

c. Locating streets, buildings, un-numbered houses.

A full description of every street—with location is given in the Householders' Street Directory. When the address given is an apartment or building without street and number being given, the alphabetical section will give you the correct street and number for that building. Many buildings on streets are not numbered—or badly numbered—making it difficult to find the building wanted. The Householders' Street Directory shows the location of the buildings along the streets.

ANOTHER BOSTON "FIRST"

. . . it could be important to your company

More so than in some other large cities, business executives in Boston have an appreciation of local advantages and the achievements of their neighbors.

They know, for example, our community's pre-eminence in industrial research facilities. They know that Boston tops the world in medicine. We're proud that many of them know New England Life founded mutual life insurance in America.

But another fact about our own company is not so well known. It might well be advantageous to you.

New England Life underwrites more individual-policy pension trusts than any other company in the world. We are also prominent in the group annuity field. Our broad diversification of plans is a helpful source of reference for current clients.

We are in an especially good position to offer our pension services to Boston business firms. This Boston "first" is at your command.

Get in touch with one of our General Agencies in Greater Boston or write direct to Pension Consultant, New England Life, 501 Boylston Street, Boston 17, Massachusetts.

OUT OF SIGHT! OUT OF MIND!
OUT OF BUSINESS! . . . . .

The importance of keeping firm and product names in the public eye is recognized by all business men. It is astonishing to see how a firm or product, however meritorious, will slip into the limbo of the forgotten if not persistently advertised.

The City Directory is the natural medium for keeping a business or product name in the spotlight. Insist on being well represented in its pages.

REPRODUCTIONS (MICRO MASTER 105 MM)

You don't need a crystal ball . . .

. . . to realize that MAKEPEACE has the most modern and complete reproduction systems to service New England business —

MICRO-MASTER 105mm — Now from a single 4" x 6" Micro-Master negative you receive clear, sharp, distortion-free "second originals" on your choice of transparent paper, cloth or film. In most cases, worn, illegible drawings can be satisfactorily reproduced eliminating costly re-drawing and checking.

Semi-obsolete drawings can be safely destroyed as Micro-Master negatives can be projected for reading purposes or blown back to original size when needed.

PHOTOSTATS — sharp, clear reproductions — good as the original.

...About Your Car Owner Lists

Whatever information an auto owner puts on his license application appears on the new Polk official car owner registration list, now available to you. Every name on a Polk car owner list is "cleaned" ahead of time. Only names of persons to whom mail can be delivered are compiled for you. Polk Car Owner Lists are not "loaded" with extra names that would waste your time and money in sending out mail, or in making personal calls.

Success or failure of any direct mail advertising program depends on your keeping that list up to date.

Serving the Automotive Industry and Its Dealers Since 1923 should appear in the Directory and the Directory should be in Every Store.

EVERY STORE

Besides its use to the storekeeper, it is a convenience the customer expects.

The store that offers an old Directory, or no Directory at all, fails to show its patrons a courtesy they will find elsewhere.
